2019 GRANTMAKING

Working to help the people and build the communities of North Carolina and South Carolina by nurturing children, promoting health, educating minds and enriching spirits, since 1924.

JAMES B. DUKE
THE DUKE ENDOWMENT
TOTAL GRANTMAKING
In 2019, The Duke Endowment distributed $156.1 million through 421 grants, some of which were approved in previous years; 184 new grants were approved, totaling nearly $185.7 million, some of which will be paid in future years.

CROSS PROGRAM/SPECIAL OPPORTUNITY
The Duke Endowment’s Cross Program grants tap the resources and expertise of two or more of the Endowment’s program areas. Special Opportunity grants are made to organizations to further the Endowment’s core program priorities.

THE CHILD AND FAMILY WELL-BEING program area views its grantmaking approach as advancing and supporting change as a collaborating partner with public agencies and private organizations to prevent, treat and mitigate the effects of child maltreatment and improve child well-being outcomes.

THE HIGHER EDUCATION
program area is a contributing partner that aims to promote the long-term success of Davidson College, Duke University, Furman University and Johnson C. Smith University so that they may effectively serve their students and the Carolinas.

THE HEALTH CARE
program area is an innovating partner that aims to improve health status and reduce health disparities in the Carolinas. Our impact can be maximized by working with health systems to identify and cultivate innovative models of care that have the potential to improve health while realizing scale and sustainability within the larger system.

THE RURAL CHURCH
program area takes the approach of an initiating partner that aims to strengthen United Methodist systems in North Carolina so that rural congregations can fulfill their calling to foster human, community and economic advancement.
