GUIDELINES
FOR CONFERENCE CENTER AND MEETING SPACES
We seek to fulfill the legacy of James B. Duke by enriching lives and communities in the Carolinas through children's services, health care, higher education and rural churches.

FOLLOW

James B. Duke’s philanthropic intent, using the discretion he gave us to address current circumstances and emerging issues.

MAINTAIN

a commitment to the Carolinas through grantmaking that strengthens organizations, replicates successful programs and tests innovative approaches.

DIRECT

resources where they will produce the best results and hold ourselves and our grantees accountable for achieving them.

PROVIDE

ethical leadership by seeking diverse opinions, fostering new ideas and strategies, and taking appropriate risks.

BUILD

effective relationships with grantees by listening with respect and understanding, learning about their communities and challenges, and working together to identify potential solutions.

CREATE

opportunities to share information about successes, failures and lessons learned.
The Endowment has awarded more than $4 billion in grants since its inception, including over $1.5 billion to Duke University. With assets of $3.8 billion in 2019, the Endowment is one of the nation’s largest 501(c)(3) private foundations. Today, more than 80 percent of our total spending goes to grantmaking.

In addition to grantmaking work in four program areas, the Endowment shares its knowledge by publishing resources for grantees and other service organizations, including information about what we’re learning from our work in various publications, reports and evaluations.

The Duke Endowment’s Conference Facilities
The Endowment’s new headquarters opened August 25, 2014. The headquarters serve not only as an office for Endowment staff, but as a gathering place for our grantees and select non-profits. It is the Endowment’s hope that the facilities will attract thought leaders and decision makers from across North Carolina and South Carolina to a hospitable environment, where new ideas and strategies lead to solutions.

Blending advanced conference facilities and state-of-the-art technology with comfortable amenities and a friendly atmosphere, the Conference Facilities help the Endowment advance our Guiding Principles.

Use of the Endowment’s Conference Facilities
Primary use of The Duke Endowment’s Conference Facilities includes meetings held by Endowment staff and grantee events initiated by the Endowment. Occasionally, eligible grantees may be permitted to use the Conference Facilities for events not related to the Endowment’s work. However, those events will be evaluated on a case-by-case basis. Regretfully, the Conference Facilities are not available to organizations that are not eligible to receive Endowment funds.

Fees
The Endowment charges a nominal fee which includes beverage service, AV equipment and parking. Users shall pay the costs associated with catering and depending on event size and needs, may also have to pay for off-duty law enforcement officers, third-party AV providers and/or valet parking.

• Benjamin N. Duke (max capacity 8) $125
• Heritage Room (max capacity 10) $150
• Washington Duke Room (max capacity 18) $225
• Semans Conference Center A, B or C individually (max capacity 40) $500
• All of Semans Conference Center (max capacity 144) $2,000

General Rules
Any group using the Conference Facilities must ensure its event is consistent with its charitable purpose and may not charge attendees a fee to attend the meeting except to cover meeting expenses, i.e., catering, speakers, materials, off-duty law enforcement officers, etc.

The Duke Endowment does not allow fundraising or the sale of products in the Conference Facilities.
For-profit sponsoring organizations may be acknowledged with a one-line logo or acknowledgement of their sponsorship on a brochure or PowerPoint slide.

Organizations hosting an event at the Endowment may not have vendors participate in a meeting without obtaining the prior written approval of the Endowment.

The Endowment’s Conference Center and Meeting Spaces may not be used for:

- Social events such as weddings, holiday parties, graduations, awards programs, retirements and fundraisers.
- Political activity, or by an individual who has announced or has filed for elective office.
- Except for work related to United Methodist churches in North Carolina, activity that advances a particular religious faith or doctrine.

The Duke Endowment is a smoke-free environment.

Absent written permission from The Duke Endowment Communications Department, the use of Conference Facilities does not imply the right to use The Duke Endowment’s name or logo, except to identify the event location.

The Duke Endowment reserves the right to modify these guidelines or to make exceptions at its sole discretion, including on a case-by-case basis.

Inclement Weather or Other Unforeseen Circumstances

Use of the Conference Facilities is subject to termination without liability upon the occurrence of any circumstances making it impossible or illegal to provide or use them, including inclement weather (e.g., snow or sleet making roads unsafe to travel).

Acts of God, war, government regulations, disaster, strikes, civil disorder or curtailment of transportation facilities. The Endowment will provide notice of such termination as soon as reasonably practical.

Scheduling

Organizations who have received approval for use of space may reserve the Mary Duke Biddle Trent Semans Conference Center 6 months in advance of the event date.

Meeting space is secured only after the Endowment has received a signed Conditions of Use form.

Once use of the space has been approved and a signed Conditions of Use form has been received, the Endowment will provide the event host with an e-mail confirmation and contact information for the Events Manager.

You are encouraged to include the Endowment staff in the early stages of planning for large events.

General Hours of Event Operation

Monday — Friday: 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Event hours outside these parameters require special approval.
Catering
The Endowment does not offer catering services. Users may work with a list of approved caterers located on the third page of the Guest Meeting Worksheet.

Serving Alcoholic Beverages
Alcoholic beverages may only be served at evening events and must be in compliance with the following:

1. The organization having the event must provide a certificate of insurance that confirms it has general liability insurance with a host liquor liability coverage endorsement with coverage limits of no less than $1 million per occurrence and $2 million in the aggregate and names The Duke Endowment and [Event Caterer] as additional named insureds. This certificate must be delivered to The Duke Endowment seven (7) days in advance of the scheduled event. Email to events@tde.org. If not provided, alcohol cannot be served.
2. Alcoholic beverages may only be served after 5:00 p.m. and for a maximum of 2 (two) hours.
3. Non-alcoholic beverages and food (minimum of $10/per person) always must be served when alcoholic beverages are being served.
4. Alcoholic beverages may only be served and consumed in the Conference Facilities. No alcohol may be removed from the building.
5. Only licensed staff of the catering vendor may serve alcohol, and all alcohol served must be purchased from the catering vendor.
6. Events including individuals under the legal drinking age may not be scheduled in the facility at the same time as events during which alcohol is served.
7. The organization may be required to pay for an off-duty law enforcement officer(s), depending on the size of the event.

The event host will be contacted to discuss plans that include alcohol.

Complimentary Guest Services

Technology Overview
The Endowment’s Conference Facilities offer a wide range of complimentary audio/visual equipment.

Equipment is reserved on a first-come, first-served basis. If an event requires technology that is not available in-house, the event host will be responsible for making arrangements with The Duke Endowment’s required vendor and for covering the costs for equipment, set-up and labor. For specific capabilities, see room details. Pre-event technology meetings are required. Please call the Events Manager at 704.969.2147 for an appointment.
ADA Statement
The Conference Facilities are fully wheelchair-accessible.

Parking
Parking is available in the Endowment’s underground parking garage off of Oriole Street and can be used by guests on a first-come, first-served basis.

Emergency Procedures
In the event of a fire, follow the exit signs. Endowment staff will direct guests to the designated gathering location. If there is a tornado warning or similar emergency, Endowment staff will direct guests to underground parking shelter in the building.

The Endowment’s first floor meeting space is equipped with an Automated External Defibrillator (AED) device, located just outside the catering kitchen. Calling 911 is the critical first step.

Media for Event
If a media outlet plans to cover an event scheduled in the Endowment’s Conference Facilities, please contact our Communications Department at 704.376.0291.
