About the Conference:
Co-sponsored by the North Carolina Hospital Association, the South Carolina Hospital Association and The Duke Endowment, the 16th Annual Small & Rural Hospital Conference is exclusively for hospital, health system, association and governmental employees and hospital and health system trustees.

To help keep registration fees low, this professionally rewarding conference is underwritten by The Duke Endowment.

Rowland-Hite Keynote Address:
The keynote presentation is made possible by a grant from the Rowland-Hite Health Planning Seminar, an annual event held from 1973 to 2011. The seminar honored the legacy of Carl Rowland, who served as Director of the Planning and Design Service of The Duke Endowment for nearly 20 years, and Charles L. Hite, who joined The Duke Endowment in 1969, and contributed greatly to its success until his retirement in 1996.

The 2016 Rowland-Hite Keynote Address is “Ensuring the Future Success of Health Care Systems” by J. Daniel Beckham, President of The Beckham Company.
Registration Fees, Cancellation Policies:

The registration fee includes all activities listed in the agenda as well as the evening reception and the ACHE breakfast. For the lowest fee, register before October 24 by completing the Conference Registration Form on page 10 and sending with payment to Meetings & Events, or you may register online by clicking here. We accept Visa, MasterCard, American Express and checks (made payable to “South Carolina Hospital Association” Tax ID number 57-0372816). A $25 discount per registrant is offered to organizations registering three or more attendees before October 24. Administrative residents may attend for half-price.

Scholarships for students in health care administration are available to a limited number of full-time students not working in full-time paid positions. To qualify, submit proof of enrollment, such as a tuition statement or affidavit from the Admissions Office, with your Conference Registration Form.

Registration fees are not refundable. You may send a substitute if we are notified in writing (e-mail or fax) prior to the conference.

Your registration fee includes all of the sessions and meals listed in the agenda. In order for us to have accurate counts, we ask that you check the appropriate boxes on the Conference Registration Form to indicate your attendance:

- Preconference Session - This session is open to all attendees.
- Networking Reception - We hope you stick around after the business meeting for our casual reception where you will have the opportunity to socialize and compare notes with colleagues while enjoying great food and drink. (Note: spouses/guests may attend the reception for $50).
- ACHE Breakfast/Panel - This session entitled, “Population Health Management Arrangements: What’s Working and Why?” is open to all attendees.

Important note: If you are a member of the Greater Charlotte Healthcare Executives Group and are not a hospital or health care system employee, you may attend the breakfast only for a fee of $50.

10:45 a.m. - 12:00 p.m. Rowland-Hite Keynote Address: Ensuring the Future Success of Health Care Systems
Health systems are evolving quickly in ways that have significant implications for their participants, including rural providers. Determining how to “fit” as high-value contributors to a health system will be key to the future of every participant.

J. Daniel Beckham
President, The Beckham Company, Bluffton, SC

The Beckham Company’s unique strategic planning approach has helped more than 150 hospitals, health systems and physician group practices produce important results including significant financial turnarounds and dramatic market share growth. Prior to joining the executive team of a hospital, Dan was an executive with two Fortune 500 health care companies. For more than two decades, Dan has been a contributing editor on strategy to American Hospital Association publications. He has published more than 100 articles on strategy and leadership.

12:00 - 1:00 p.m. Lunch

1:15 - 2:15 p.m. The Dental Dilemma: Addressing Unmet Oral Health Needs in Rural Communities Through Care Integration Models
This session will describe the impact unmet oral health needs have on the financial performance of rural hospitals. Emerging trends in oral health that will improve population health and hospital performance will be discussed.

Amy Martin, DrPH
Director, Division of Population Oral Health, Department of Stomatology, James B. Edwards College of Dental Medicine, Medical University of South Carolina, Charleston, SC

Dr. Martin is an experienced researcher who has dedicated her career to improving the lives of vulnerable populations. Her health policy research foci are vulnerable populations, access to care and oral health with an emphasis on rural health care and public health systems. She has served in the health care sector as Director of Education for a rural hospital; Associate Director of the South Carolina Office of Rural Health; and a manager and health policy analyst at the Office of Research and Statistics, Budget and Control Board of South Carolina. Dr. Martin was a recipient of the National Institutes of Health Loan Repayment Award for her research in health disparities. She is a member of the Appalachia Regional Commission’s Health Policy Council and Coordinating Committee for the White House Rural Council’s Public-Private Partnership Initiative.

2:15 - 2:45 p.m. Break
2:45 - 3:45 p.m.  American Hospital Association Washington Update

This session will update conference attendees on the latest federal and regulatory issues and their impact on small and rural hospitals in North Carolina and South Carolina.

 Joanna Hiatt Kim
Vice President, Payment Policy, American Hospital Association, Washington, DC

Ms. Kim leads the association’s work on Medicare and Medicaid payments, including those for inpatient and outpatient hospital care, post-acute care, and physician services. She came to the AHA from the United States Government Accountability Office, where she served as a Senior Health Policy Analyst. In this role, she advised Congress on potential policy changes and conducted policy analyses on a wide range of issues, including Medicare payment policy and hospital community benefits.

3:45 - 5:15 p.m.  Telehealth (Face-to-Face Panel)

Telemedicine uses a variety of forms of electronic communication technology to provide a convenient method to deliver health care services and education. Its innovative benefits are of vital interest amid the implementation of the Affordable Care Act. This program will explore the current and future role of telemedicine in the delivery of health care. The program surveying the various uses and settings of telemedicine will delve into how well this technology has been utilized and received by clinicians and patients. Technical, operational, regulatory and financial aspects of the development of telemedicine programs will be investigated. The expanding role that telemedicine holds in daily medicine and its direction into the future of the health care delivery system will be explored.

Moderator: Kathleen Kaney, DrPH
Chief of Staff, Operations, Carolinas HealthCare System, Charlotte, NC

Dr. Kaney’s work at CHS is focused on Care Coordination and overall integration of services across the continuum to serve the patient and family. She has experience in acute care, ambulatory, emergency services, care management and virtual care. Dr. Kaney also represents CHS in the community, serving as co-chair of Healthy Charlotte and Mecklenburg County EMS, understanding community integration is key to value-based care and improvement of population health. She was named 2005 Modern Healthcare Up and Comer, 2010 ACHER Regents Award Winner for NC, and included in 2015 Most Influential Women and 2004 40 under 40 in the Charlotte Region by the Charlotte Business Journal.

Kathy G. Schwarting
Executive Director, Palmetto Care Connections, Bamberg, SC

Ms. Schwarting has developed and coordinated the activities of Palmetto Care Connections, a statewide Telehealth/Telemedicine Network since 2010. Prior, she served as Executive Director at Low Country Health Care Network, managing a Rural Health Care Network of four hospitals sharing programs and services, as well as working on physician recruitment for four counties, grant development and management and product development.

Sheila Davies, PhD

Prior to her current position, Dr. Davies served as CEO and President of MedAccess Partners, a consulting firm providing comprehensive telemedicine services including program evaluations and needs assessments, program design, program implementation and operation management, clinical telemedicine protocol development and training and equipment selection support. She has also served as Mayor of Kill Devil Hills since 2011.
Friday, November 11

7:30 - 9:00 a.m. Registration/ACHE Breakfast Panel (Face-to-Face)
Population Health Management Arrangements: What’s Working and Why?

In the past five years of accountable care organizations, payment model experiments, and different methods to shift from sick care to preventive care, a variety of population health management arrangements have been implemented. In this session, we’ll review a variety of population health strategies that have stood the test of time, looking at the reasons for these programs’ longevity and financial sustainability by drawing from case studies, national program analysis and presenter experience.

Moderator: Seth Edwards
Principal, PACT Population Health Collaborative, Premier, Inc., Washington, DC

Prior to his current position, Mr. Edwards has served as Director of Federal Affairs dealing with policy and issue development and advocacy efforts. He managed a portfolio of issues including Medicaid, the uninsured and the Children’s Health Insurance Program, Accountable Care Organizations, Bundled Payments and Medical Liability. In addition, he cultivated and maintained the Federal Affairs Network and managed and expanded the Premier Employee Political Action Committee.

Lisa Shock, MHS, PA-C
Senior Director, Clinical Operations, Evolent Health, Raleigh, NC

Ms. Shock has over 15 years of success enabling excellence in patient care and leading transformations in health care delivery. Her background includes health care leadership roles at CHESS, Cornerstone Healthcare, Roxboro Family Medicine and Immediate Care, Duke University Medical Center and North State Medical Center as well as teaching appointments at University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and Duke University Medical Center.

Ruth Zyry, PhD (C), RNC
Chief of Clinical Operations, Mission Health, Asheville, NC

Before coming to Mission Health, Dr. Zyry served as Vice President of Surgical Suites and Longitudinal Care Service Lines for the Geisinger Health System in Danville, Pennsylvania. She also served as an adjunct faculty member for Pennsylvania College of Technology and the Thomas Jefferson University. She was awarded the 2004 Nightingale Award of Pennsylvania in Nursing Administration and was selected as one of the top 100 people in business in 2005 by Pennsylvania Business Central.

9:00 a.m. Welcome

James R. Walker
Senior Vice President, South Carolina Hospital Association, Columbia, SC
9:15 - 10:15 a.m.  Federal Funding Updates

This session will identify key HHS programs, resources and initiatives that affect rural health care providers, including grant and technical assistance opportunities.

Tom Morris
Associate Administrator, Office of Rural Health Policy, Health Resources & Services Administration, US Department of Health & Human Services, Rockville, MD

Mr. Morris is responsible for the administrative and policy activities in the Federal Office of Rural Health Policy, which coordinates rural activities with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. He oversees the Office’s work analyzing health policy issues in rural communities as well as the administration of grant programs that focus on building rural health care capacity at the state and community levels. He currently serves as the HHS representative to the White House Rural Council. He joined the ORHP in 1998 and has served in many positions, including grants project officer. Before joining the federal government, he was a newspaper reporter and editor in North Carolina.

10:15 - 10:30 a.m.  Break

10:30 a.m. - 12:00 p.m. Rural Hospital Viability: Finding a Way Forward in an Evolving Marketplace

Purchase, alignment, management and affiliation are all options that many rural facilities explore when working to ensure their sustainability in a world shifting from volume to value. This session will share lessons learned from years of experience in the NC marketplace as well as those discovered through the more recent SC Hospital Transformation Fund, a $40 million pool created to incentivize partnerships between rural hospitals and larger tertiary care systems. Learn from your peers how they’ve found a way forward and the steps they have taken to get where they are today.

Moderator: Graham Adams, PhD
Chief Executive Officer, South Carolina Office of Rural Health, Lexington, SC

Dr. Adams has been with SCORH since 1995 and has served in a variety of capacities. As the Chief Executive Officer, he is responsible for developing and executing long and short-range goals to fulfill the mission and vision of the organization. In this role, he provides technical assistance regarding strategic planning, grant development, funding opportunities, infrastructure development and resource allocation. Dr. Adams consistently strives to work collaboratively with clinicians, administrators, educators, legislators, community and civic leaders and state and federal agencies to improve access to quality health care in rural communities. Previously, Dr. Adams served as the State Director of the Medicare Rural Hospital Flexibility Program, which is a federal initiative designed to assist small, rural hospitals in improving their financial status. He also served as the State Director for the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation’s Southern Rural Access Program, Associate Director, and Special Projects Director during his tenure with the SCORH.

Panelists:

Melinda Merrell
Senior Program Director, South Carolina Office of Rural Health, Lexington, SC

Ms. Merrell provides targeted support for rural health care providers, ensuring they receive the specific training and technical assistance they need in the areas of quality improvement and financial and operational improvement for their organizations. Prior to joining the Office of Rural Health, Ms. Merrell was the Director of the Northeastern Rural Health Network located in rural South Carolina.
Paul Newhouse
Chief Executive Officer, Union Medical Center, Union, SC

Mr. Newhouse has worked in the health care field for over 30 years both domestically in Atlanta and New Orleans and internationally in London, England; Geneva, Switzerland; and Paris, France. He has a Bachelor’s degree in Accounting from the University of West Florida in Pensacola, Florida and a Master’s Degree in Business Administration studying at Webster University in Geneva, Switzerland and Brenau University in Gainesville, Georgia.

Deborah D. Locklair
Senior Vice President & Regional Administrator, McLeod Health, Interim Administrator, Clarendon Health System, Manning, SC

Ms. Locklair is responsible for the day to day operations of the 80-bed inpatient facility and serves as the Regional Administrator for McLeod Health Cheraw, a 59-bed inpatient facility and McLeod Health Dillon, a 79-bed inpatient facility. She was Interim Administrator for McLeod Health Cheraw during the transition from Community Health Systems to McLeod Health. Previously, she served as the Administrator for McLeod Health Dillon for ten years. Ms. Locklair began her career at McLeod in 1989 as a Social Worker and Discharge Planner for the Neonatal Intensive Care Unit. On a state level, Locklair serves on the Board of Trustees of the South Carolina Hospital Association and the Board of Directors for the South Carolina Office of Rural Health. She is also a board member of the South Carolina chapter of the American College of Healthcare Executives and Healthy Learners.

Paul J. Schumacher, III, CRT, RRT, BS
Chief Operational Officer, McLeod Health Clarendon, Manning, SC

Mr. Schumacher assumed his current role in 2013 and has since led a turnaround effort which resulted in a $5 million bottom line improvement and an improvement in LEAPFROG scores from an “F” to a “B”. In late 2015, he was made interim CEO and spearheaded the July 12, 2016 affiliation with McLeod Health System located in Florence, South Carolina. Prior to joining Clarendon, he held administrative roles with Tuomey Healthcare System (currently Palmetto Health Tuomey), leading such departments as Respiratory, Laboratory, Pharmacy, Emergency Department, Case Management, ICU, Human Resources, Customer Service, Revenue Cycle, and Business Development.

Steve Lawler
Senior Vice President, Regional Group, Carolinas HealthCare System, Charlotte, NC

Mr. Lawler provides strategic development, network and alignment opportunities, operational support and strategic services to hospitals and health care systems throughout North Carolina, South Carolina, and Georgia. Prior to joining Carolinas HealthCare System, he was with Vidant Health, with positions ranging from Chief Administrative Officer of University Health Systems and President of East Carolina Health. Mr. Lawler served as President of Bertie Memorial Hospital in Windsor, NC for two and a half years and was integral in the completion of construction of the first hospital in the country designed and built specifically for Critical Access Hospital operations.

L. Lee Isley, PhD, FACHE
Chief Executive Officer, Granville Health System, Oxford, NC

Throughout his career, Dr. Isley has specialized in working with rural health systems, focusing on building successful medical teams and providing quality care and exceptional services to the communities they serve. Prior to his current role, he served as Chief Administrative Officer for Morristown-Hamblen Healthcare System in Morristown, Tennessee, and held executive level positions from Assistant Vice President to Chief Operating Officer with WestCare Health System in Sylva, NC. Mr. Isley is a Fellow with the American College of Healthcare Executives, serves as a Delegate for the American Hospital Association and has been appointed by the Secretary of Health and Human Services to the North Carolina EMS Advisory Council.
